President's Message

By Kathryn Utke, Region 3 President

I have received a valuable education during the past years I have been participating in N.A.T.R.C. There have been numerous times I have received encouragement from my fellow competitor, enlightenment from a dedicated judge and a commitment of hard work to ensure a good ride by ride management and volunteers.

I did not realize all the aspects to this sport until I became involved not only as a competitor but also as a worker and volunteer. It takes a lot dedication and work from many different people to put on one ride, let alone 10 to 13 rides per season. If you have attended only one ride or 30 million, I cannot express enough the importance of giving back to this sport man or woman hours in replacement for that which you have taken. I encourage you to participate in all levels of this sport. This is the only way to ensure the continued growth and health of this organization.

It is especially important to support our Benefit Ride each year. This year is the Golden Gate Region III Benefit in September. All the proceeds from this ride go to provide funds for Region III. Without this, we cannot ensure the quality we need within our region. The one-day Singing Hill B Ride for Novice and Competitive Pleasure also go to benefit the region. Make these rides a priority and mark them on your calendar! Join us in some way, be that competitor, worker and/or volunteer. Please be generous enough to participate within our region on all levels so that we can continue to create and promote FUN, EDUCATION, COMMUNICATION, and ADAPTABILITY with our horse on the trail and in camp.

HAVE HORSE, HAVE LAND, HAVE RIDES, WILL TRAVEL! - Kathryn L. Utke

LETTERS

The following letter comes from Frank and Stacy Bowman via The Mosgrove:

It's great to hear about all the happenings through the Region 3 Newsletter and really look forward to seeing all of you for the National Convention in Denver.

Frank was delighted to be asked as emcee for the February Convention and hopefully will fulfill his duty with the spirit of Region 3!

As you probably have heard, we are expecting a future "Junior rider" ourselves ... I am only 3 weeks away and can you believe, still riding? Thank goodness for smooth fox trotting horses!

My doctors don't quite know what to do with me - I even rode our stallion "Grey Feather" in a local county fair horse show last weekend - tummy and all. Yes folks, I am definitely in the heavyweight division now!

My riding attire now consists of denim overalls (easy to adjust), t-shirt and the largest pair of cowboy boots I own, as my feet have taken the brunt of things and really do like to swell as of late.

We are enjoying the Midwest weather ... no humidity to speak of yet above all the grass. Our pastures here are waist high and I haven't fed a flake of hay since May!

"Bowman Stables" is up to 17 Missouri Fox Trotting Horses - two studs, my riding gelding, 10 mares and four foals this spring. It's really great to be able to afford raising horses as pasture and our hay field provides all the forage we could possibly want. In fact, we actually have to mow our pastures because the grass gets too tall and the horses won't mess with it!

Dear Editor:

Your March/April 1993 issue of Region 3 newsletter included a postcard with a "Trail Alert" note, which said "use this postcard to express your concern for the proposed elimination/restriction of horses from Rocky Mountain National Park".

We are in the process of developing a Commercial Horse Use Management Plan and Environmental Assessment which addresses trail maintenance, hiker/horse conflicts, distribution of use, noxious weed species, length of rides, Continental Divide rides, winter/extended seasonal use, string size, and interior liveryes. What is not at issue however, is the elimination of horses, either private or commercial, from the park. The park does not propose to discontinue horse use within its boundaries.

The National Park Service is obligated to protect lands under its jurisdiction and at the same time, we recognize horseback riding as an important means of viewing and learning about

We get four cuttings a year on our six-acre hay field which provides approximately 300 bales per cutting.

As for riding, we of course miss our Region 3 trails and the Butterfields as back yard neighbors ... nothing compares to that! Luckily, the 250-acre + family farm is situated on a large river which give us rolling, hilly countryside and deep hard timbered forest to ride through.

I'm not sure whether we will attend any Region 5 or 6 rides this year, but who knows? National Secretary Gloria Becker has already got us thinking about starting an Illinois NATRC-sanctioned ride next year. There are over 50 endurance rides in this state and not one NATRC ride, so we hope to change that. When the time comes we may need all the help we can get, so look out all you horsemanship and vet judges, you may be visiting Abe Lincoln's hometown sooner than you think!

We want to extend a warm welcome to anyone who is passing through Lincolnland with or without horses - we'd love to have you!

Our address is:

RR2 Box 178
Pleasant Plains, IL 62677

Sincerely,

Stacy and Frank Bowman

PS: A baby announcement to follow ...

Rocky Mountain National Park.

Enclosed is the "Equestrian Planner Newsletter", which describes our planning efforts. A site bulletin is also being developed to inform private horse enthusiasts about day and overnight horse use opportunities in the park. We will send you a copy when it is completed.

We will keep you informed of the planning process through subsequent issues of the newsletter, and we encourage your comments.

Sincerely,

Homer L. Rouse

Around Region 3...

A toast to Jill Talbot who was married to Jeff Hicks on July 11, in Boulder, Colo. We are looking forward to seeing the two of them on the trails together soon!

Updated Youth Manual now available

The Region III Youth Manual Committee has just recently completed the second edition of the Region III Youth Manual. It is available for distribution to all NATRC Regions, Pony Clubs, 4-H groups and any other organizations that involve children with horses. We hope the use of this manual will help promote competitive trail riding among children between the ages of 10 to 18 years of age.

To cover printing costs, we are only charging $5.00 per copy. If you know of a group involving children of these ages, or if you would like a copy yourself, call Manual editor Jill at (303) 494-2531 or write Jill E. Talbot, JET Arabian Ranch, 858 Marshall Rd. Boulder, CO 80303.

Congratulations to Mary Lou McManaman who is now an officially licensed realtor. She is still finding time to plan NATRC activities into a very busy schedule these days.

For those interested, the video taken by the Independent Mountain Channel cable television station of last year's Twenty Fifth Anniversary Top of the World Ride is available for sale. It may be purchased at this year's Top of the World ride or through the Mountain Channel.

Murder in Mesopotamia

More clues for the Region III Benefit Ride

Last issue, you were introduced to several guests staying at an archaeological dig at a military fortress in Mesopotamia. You met Les A. Payre, the railroad tycoon, and Missy N. Lynke, the adventuresome heiress to the Lynke family fortune. Both are guests of the famous Art E. Faxe, who has just made an extraordinary find. But there's more than meets the eye regarding these two:

The sordid facts about Missy N. Lynke:

Missy's father and Faxe are arch-rivals and she is a spy in Faxe's camp. The Duke is an avid archaeologist and considers Faxe a bungler and a fool. Yet Faxe has had his successes and Missy's father fears that, with the help of Anne T. Ickwitte and Conrad Iver, he may be successful in discovering something important. Missy's instructions are to "observe, report and obstruct."

Faxe has been watching Missy suspiciously and has been guarded about his work at the Cleft Formie. He keeps all his finds locked away in the Armory and Missy has not been invited inside. She is desperate to have a look so she can report to her father.

What Faxe would do if he caught Missy spying she does not know, but rumor has it that his anger can be terrible. Missy had best be very careful.

The sordid facts about Les A. Payre:

Faxe opposes Payre's rail line for the very good reason that he has formed a syndicate to accomplish the same goal. In fact, Faxe has invested the last of his wealth in the venture and if it fails he will certainly be bankrupt. Payre has proposed to Faxe that the two ventures be merged but Faxe stubbornly refuses because he distrusts Payre. Unfortunately for the railroad tycoon, Faxe is close friends with one of the most powerful men in the Ottoman Empire, The Emir Eyad Uvsins, and without the Emir's help, Payre's project is doomed.

While Payre's business partner, S. Toppar Nuthen, is negotiating with the Emir's representatives, he is on hand at Fort Ap Aachih to distract Faxe as best he can and persuade him to change his mind about the merger. If all else fails, he will kill Faxe. Payre probably won't do the killing himself, as he has a band of mercenary soldiers nearby, waiting for orders. Each morning, he rides out to meet them.

With distracting Faxe in mind, Payre has indulged in a bit of, pardon the expression, skullduggery. From a London merchant - Rutherford Russ who sells under the name Fossils R. Russ - he has obtained several quite realistic but false fossil pieces. These Payre has planted about in the vicinity of the fortress in hopes that they will encourage Faxe in his archaeology efforts and divert him from his business plans.

Introducing a new character,

Terra Sunder:

Terra is Arthur E. Faxe's daughter. Beautiful and enthusiastic, she enjoys to the fullest the social status her father's wealth and fame has made available. Life is a constant round of parties and social events and Terra has taken an active interest in the theatre, the arts and music. She has also enjoyed success in designing fashionable lingerie for her friends which she has blushing marketed under the name "Terra Sunder Wear." Married a few years ago, she now lives separately from her husband, Castor Sunder. Terra is close to her father and has insisted on joining him at the expedition site, much to his pleasure.

The sordid facts about Terra Sunder:

Terra suspects her father Faxe of having murdered her mother, the Italian Contessa Luisa Terra Cotta Faxe, to gain control of her wealth. Fortunately, her will established a trust fund for Terra and her brother Justin D. Faxe, (who she calls "Jus"). Unfortunately, Faxe is the trustee and lately he has been reluctant to disburse the income. Terra and her brother have suspected Faxe of mismanagement or diversion of the funds and now Jus has disappeared. The story has been put out that Jus ran off with an actress, but Terra knows if he were still alive he would have written her. It was said that her mother ran off with an actor who murdered her, but she was never satisfied with that story either. Faxe despises the theatre, though oddly enough he has taken an interest in Hamilton MacTorr's career. Terra is uneasy here in camp. Faxe has been behaving suspiciously and perhaps she is in danger.
